PUGET SOUND BIRD FEST 2022

The 2022 Puget Sound Bird Fest is just around the corner on September 10th and 11th in Edmonds. This beloved fall tradition offers nature lovers two days of speakers, guided walks, field trips, boat tours, exhibits, and educational activities.

This year's keynote speaker is Martha Jordan who will discuss Washington's swan and snow geese populations and their connection to agriculture.

The Bird Fest Exhibit Hall at the Frances Anderson Center will house informational booths, kid's activities, and local artists and merchants from 10am- 4pm on Saturday, September 10th.

IT'S COHO DERBY SEASON

The Edmonds Coho Derby is back this year, and the Port of Edmonds is hosting! The event takes place on September 10th, and you must be in line by 2pm at the marina's weigh in station to be entered. Tickets cost $30 and the first-place prize is $5,000! Our marina facilities, including the public launch, will be open from 6am to 6pm on September 10th for the derby.

The Port of Edmonds marina will also be a weigh-in location for the Everett Coho Derby over the September 24th- 25th weekend.

OKTOBERFEST IN EDMONDS!

The Oktoberfest Family Festival returns to Edmonds this fall. Taking place at the Frances Anderson Field on September 23rd and 24th, this event includes a 5k run, pet parade, live music, kid's activities, food trucks, and a beer garden. For details: <https://edmondsoktoberfest.com/>.

DID YOU KNOW? FIVE SALMON FACTS

1. Salmon are anadromous which means they can live in fresh or salty water.
2. After feeding and growing, they migrate back to the exact place where they were born to reproduce spawn.
3. Salmon can change color. They can be three different colors over the course of their life.
4. A female spring Chinook salmon can carry more than 4,000 eggs.
5. Salmon do not eat any food during the time they swim upstream to spawn.
